

We'll Bring the World His Truth Song Story

Elder Bateman looked out across the desert. He saw camels grazing. He shielded his eyes from the sand, and kept walking with his companion into the small town in Mongolia. They had deliveries to make.

“We have been saved for these latter days, to build the kingdom in righteous ways”

He and his companion felt inspired to bake banana bread and give it to people in the village, and it made a difference.

One woman said, “Why are you so nice?” after they gave her a loaf. And they made an appointment to teach her the next week. Only 6 people came to church their first Sunday, but now they had almost 20 new friends attending their small group in the Gobi desert.

“We hear the words our prophet declares, let each who’s worthy go forth and share.”

Elder Bateman was grateful he had listened to the Holy Ghosts promptings to serve a mission. He hadn’t always wanted to go, but he was so glad now he made the decision, to share the light of the gospel with others who didn’t have it in their homes and families.

We are as the Army of Helaman
We have been taught in our youth
And we will be the Lord’s missionaries
To bring the World His Truth
